4. To Search for Material

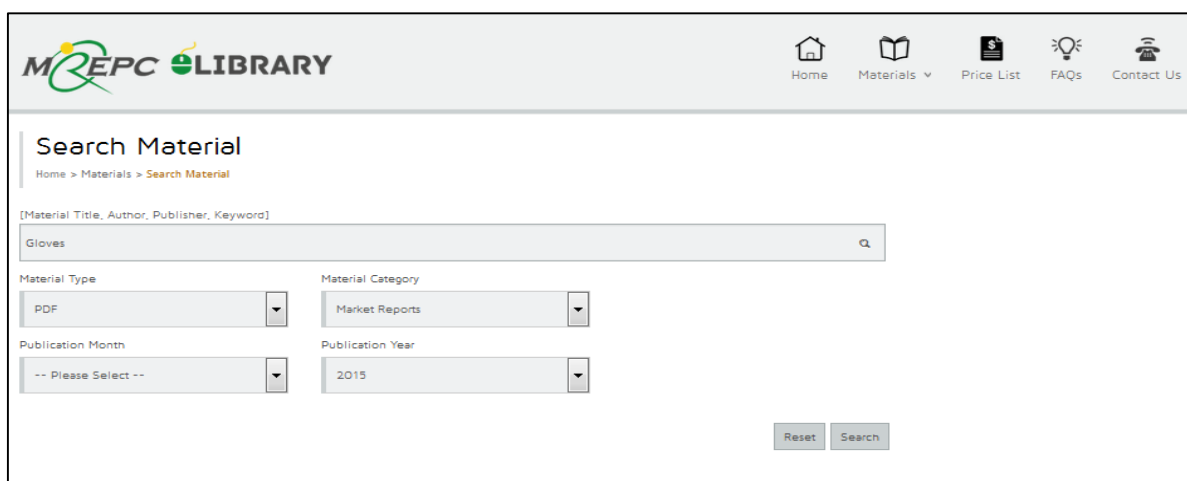

- a. The newly updated e-Library system is designed to offer new additional features to cater for your requirements and improve your overall experience. The new system allows you to search for materials by filling in the title, author, publisher or keyword(s). Alternatively, you may also use the advance search function by clicking on the 'advanced search' button on the Home Page.

For example: Using the Keyword: Gloves (as shown below)

The screenshot shows the MREPC e-Library interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the logo and links for Home, Materials, Price List, FAQs, and Contact Us. Below this is the 'Search Material' section. A search bar contains the text 'Gloves', which is highlighted with a green circle. Below the search bar are four dropdown menus for 'Material Type', 'Material Category', 'Publication Month', and 'Publication Year', all set to '-- Please Select --'. At the bottom right of the search area are 'Reset' and 'Search' buttons.

- b. You may simplify your search results by entering additional criteria (e.g. Material Type, Material Category, Publication Month and Year) in the Search Material page.

This screenshot shows the same MREPC e-Library search page, but with additional criteria entered. The search bar still contains 'Gloves'. The 'Material Type' dropdown is now set to 'PDF', the 'Material Category' dropdown is set to 'Market Reports', and the 'Publication Year' dropdown is set to '2015'. The 'Publication Month' dropdown remains at '-- Please Select --'. The 'Reset' and 'Search' buttons are still present at the bottom right.
